¹A second scheduling order was entered on July 30, 2007. As the orders are identical, this Court refers only to the one entered first.

²Ollom Excavating filed an answer to ORCC's third-party complaint on October 29, 2007, and Gust Masonry filed its answer on November 9, 2007.

³Defendant All American Homes of Ohio, LLC informs this Court that co-defendant Ohio River Collieries Company joins in the motion.

a stay of the July 23, 2007 scheduling order until such time as all parties, including third-party defendants Ollom Excavating and Gust Masonry, can confer and submit an updated report of the parties' planning meeting.

For good cause shown, the motion of defendant All American Homes of Ohio, LLC is GRANTED AS FRAMED. Accordingly, the deadlines set forth in this Court's July 23, 2007 scheduling order are hereby STAYED, including the deadlines for physical inspection of property and expert witness designation, pending this Court's approval of an amended report of parties' planning meeting and entry of a scheduling order. All parties, including third-party defendants Ollom Excavating and Gust Masonry, shall meet and confer on or before November 28, 2007 to prepare a proposed amended meeting report. The parties shall file an amended report of the parties' planning meeting on or before December 5, 2007.
